Paired with traditional Balinese music, the dance will be the classic demonstration of the Balinese mythology – the story of the battle between good and evil. • Batuan Temple: This local Balinese Hindu temple is well looked after by the local resident of Batuan countryside. The temple is designed beautifully, with abundant Balinese ornaments. The thatched roofs of the temple buildings are made from the fibre of chromatic black palm trees, an Indonesian architecture tradition. • Kemenuh Village (Woodcrafts): Observe craftsmen turning slabs of wood into beautiful carvings during your visit. Balinese fine art woodcarving was once reserved exclusively for royal families and religious purposes. • Kintamani Village: A favourite destination in Bali that hosts the active volcano of Mount Batur and a beautiful lake. Enjoy a sumptuous buffet lunch at the village. • Coffee and Cacao Plantation: See how coffee cherries are raised and learn about the coffee making process for the famous luwak coffee and more. The controversial Luwak coffee is famous for its delicious quality, characterized aroma and rarity.

Important Notes: The journey to Mas Village takes about 1 hour one way.
